

The Nebraska Medal of Honor Foundation acts as the guard, herald, and philanthropic organization in support of those Nebraska Warriors having been bestowed the Congressional Medal of Honor.

It is our mission to support by all honorable means available to the remembrance of Nebraska's greatest military Heroes.

We accept donations from patriotic organizations and individuals across the state to fulfill this mission. Members of the Foundation accept no monetary gain, all donations are spent to honor Nebraska's Medal of Honor Recipients.

The Medal of Honor is the highest award for valor in action against an enemy force which can be bestowed upon an individual serving in the Armed Services of the United States. The Medal is generally presented to Recipients by the President of the United States.

Some 3,500 Americans have received the Medal of Honor since it was first introduced in the 1860s, but to date, only 19 have earned the military's highest award for valor on two occasions.
